A Striking Request
Rev. J. V. Dawes, of Lanchow, China, tells the following interest- ing story. He and Rev. E. L. Morgan were visiting a large city in Shantung Province, China, in which no Missionary is located. He says: "As some of us walked out on the city wall a Chinese gentleman fol- lowed us and told us he was a mer- chant, and was studying the Christ- ian doctrine. He said that he had the names of twelve girls from the best families in the city, and their parents wished a school for them opened in the city. The parents were willing to rent a house, pro- vide the furniture and pay a native teacher, but they were not willing to put their girls in such a school unless a missionary was in charge. He said if he could not open such a school they would ask some other mission to open it."

It seems remarkable that the best people in China should be applying in this way for mission schools.

Sunday School Report
The latest statistical report shows the total enrollment in the Sunday schools of the world to be 28,011,194, again of 690,295 over the previous triennium. Additional figures are re- ceived from remote foreign fields, however, which may materi- ally increase the gain shown by the foregoing statement.

A Chinese Bible
Bishop Bashford says: "The Prot- estant churches of China have long worked together in making a com- mon translation of the Bible. With in the next two or three years we hope to have a revised Chinese Bi- ble completed and ready for pub- lication. We have also agreed upon the common translation of a large number of standard hymns for use in the hymn book, with the provision that each church may add to it edition of the union hymn book such additional hymns as that church may desire for the expres- sion of its faith."

Advantages of Government Ownership of Telephones

"I think," said a prominent east- ern business man, "that it would be a beautiful arrangement if the tele- phone system were owned by the Government. Just think how nice it would be to have the operators protected by civil service rules, so that when you protested about de- lay in obtaining connection they could make a saucy answer, telling you to wait until your hurry had abated. It would, of course, be very nice from their point of view, but it certainly would not be good for busi- ness. However, in these times the interests of business are not to be considered, for we appear to be at the beginning of an idealistic age when no one shall work and all shall enjoy the blessings of prosper- ity."

LOOKS LIKE TRACTION LINE

Promoters of New Industry Seek Franchise to Sell Electricity For Power

AND HEATING PURPOSES

The much-talked-of interurban line between Madisonville and Nortonville now seems a certainty, according to James Breathitt who is representing the Madis- sonville & Nortonville Light, Power & Traction Co., who spent several days in the city last week in the interest of the line.

At first the company stated that the road would be built pro- vided the Madisonville Light plant could be secured, which would then give the traction company the right to furnish the lights and power for the city. The board of public works stated that the plant was not for sale at any price. However, the company realized that the line from this city to Nortonville would be a money-making propo- sition. It is now proposed to have the city offer for sale a franchise which will permit of selling electricity for "power, heating and manufacturing pur- poses," which is to be drawn up by the city attorney and sold at an early date.

Surveyors are now in the field going over the proposed route and it is believed that in the event the franchise is granted actual work will begin within the next three months.

SEEKS REVENGE ON BEN JOHNSON

Washington Newspaper Digs up Ancient Claim of Government Against The State of Kentucky

The Washington enemies of Representative Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, who are "sore" be- cause of his efforts to cut off the pipe line which they have with the Federal Treasury sprang a grand coup Wednesday, but they did not feaze the fighting Ken- tuckian. They dug up an an- cient, cob webby claim of the Federal Government against the State of Kentucky, which claim is in the fair round sum of -1,435,757.39, and they paraded their discovery under large head- lines in a front page story of one of the Washington afternoon papers.

It seems that away back in 1839, when the government of the United States had more mon- ey than it knew what to do with and when omnibus pork bills and other scientific ways of dissipat- ing the surplus had not yet been invented, large sums were de- posited by the general Govern- ment with the various States then composing the Union for "safe keeping." It seems that nearly all the States, including Kentucky, were seized with a lapse of memory and forgot to return the money.

Just to get under Ben John- son's hide, the fact is now pub- lished that Kentucky owes the Government the tidy sum of $1,435,757.39 and it was intimi- dated that Johnson, who hails from Kentucky, has a good deal of gall to go after the District of Col- umbia as he does when his own State was jumping the big debt. Washington is greedy.

At first Mr. Johnson's impulse was to whale away and pay the debt, but when he reflected that if he did so it would deplete his pocket change, he decided to ignore the whole matter, simply stating that he was not surprised that Washington want's all the money in the Federal Treasury but he was a little astonished that it should hunt up old due bills in order to increase its ple- thethoric haul on the public funds.

"During the last thirty-five years," said he, "Kentucky has contributed $3,500,000 toward paying the expense of the dis- trict of Columbia. A favorable report was agreed upon to abolish this time honored soft snap for the District.

TWO MURDERS LAST WEEK

Will Boyd Acquitted at Examining Trial For Killing Dan Mills at This Place

ED NORRIS KILLED AT MORTONS

Two negroes are dead and another had a narrow escape when a bullet fired from a revolver in the hands of an angry negro ripped his undershirt as smoothly as if a razor had been used. This is the total Christmas trag- edies in Hopkins county for the week.

At this place the first of the week Will Boyd, colored, shot and instantly killed Dan Mills, another negro, of this city, as a result of a quarrel. It seems that Mills was drinking and started a quarrel with Boyd. It is claimed that Mills went away and returned with a gun, and was trying to shoot Boyd, when the latter drew a revolver and fired several shots taking effect, result- ing in instant death. The verdict of the coroner's jury showed that Boyd acted in self- defense and at his examining trial he was acquitted.

The second killing took place at Morton's Gap Wednesday af- ternoon, when Ed Norris was killed. Lewis Norris, a brother of the dead negro is in the county jail charged with the murder, his examining trial being set for today.

There are several reports as to how Norris was killed. It is claimed that the negro made a statement before he died that the shooting was an accident and blamed no one. The brother claims that the dead man shot himself. A 12 year-old child, the only witness, and a daughter of the dead man, stated that the brothers quarreled over a board bill, which resulted in both open- ing fire with revolvers and the fatal wounding of her brother. The case will be tried before Judge Bradley.

Thursday afternoon at Morton Gap, Tom Jones took a shot at a young negro named Gohee, but his aim was bad and the only damage to result was a ripped undershirt where the bullet went through. The negroes quarreled over some trifling matter. Jones was arrested and his examining trial held over to await the action of the grand jury.

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sul- phate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

The Time The Place And The Man

(Advertisement)

Great occasions bring out great men, and obscure lesser ones. Such an occasion was the Democratic state platform convention of 1911; and the most conspicuous figure in that convention was J. C. W. Beckham. Had not that convention adopted a platform containing the the county plank, the Democrats could not have carried the state in the fall; and had it not been for Governor Beckham, the plank would not have been adopted.

That convention was the climax in the fight of the people of Kentucky for legislative fulfillment of the constitutional guaranty of the county unit in local option, and the turning point in the campaign of 1911. Like every climax, viewed in perspective, it draws in bold relief the personages included and epitomizes the elements involved in the events leading up to it.

Since Gov. Beckham is a candidate before the people for the United States Senate, that occasion and the epoch it includes is worthy of a retrospective glance for the significance it may have in the senatorial campaign.

Briefly reviewed, the situation was this: the county unit was the issue. Judge E. C. O'Rear, a man with a record on the issue, had won a notable victory in his own party, and it looked as if he might sweep the state in November. Senator J.
B. McCreary had accepted the Democratic nomination for Governor on the active support of Gov. Beckham; and it was clear to everyone that unless the Democratic party should pledge a platform convention and unequivocally pledge itself to the enactment of a county unit law, the ticket had no ghost of a show.

son appeared as spokesman and herald for Goliath.

The result is history: Goliath was defeated and his herald put to rout.
The county unit plank was adopted and the state was redeemed to Democracy; just as it is recorded that the children of Israel shouted and pursued the Philistines; but that, you remember, was after David prevailed over Goliath.

The simile is not unworthy. The whiskey trust is to Kentucky what the copper trust is to Colorado; it stands for "big business" here, the Goliath of allied interests, grown arrogant with wealth and power.
Many of the faithful trembled lest Blackham, affronting it, would defeat the party.

And Beckham, too, had shepherded his father's sheep in Nelson Co.
He had flung many a well directed stone at a wolf or two. His apprenticeship was thorough for this achievement in the platform convention.

When one recalls the robust figure of the former Governor standing on the stage in defense of the people and the Constitution, his mind reverts in wonderment a score of years and pictures a slight form of a pale youth occupying the same seat in the House of Representatives in which his father had died. That youth was Crepps Beckham.

Before the first session was over, Beckham became critically ill; and a specialist sent him to New Mexico for his health. The next spring finds him home—fighting for Joe Blackburn for United States Senator. That was in '96 when W.
O. Bradley was elected Governor and the legislature was a tie, with Godfrey Hunter, the Republican hominee, and Joe Blackburn, choice of the Democratic caucus. Beckham had been asked to return to the legislature from Nelson County, but his family forbade it, but he saw to it that Isaac Wilson, a Blackburn man, was nominated.

Strange fatalities have thrown unexpected responsibilities upon this young man. Scarcely had Isaac Wilson cast his vote in the Democratic caucus for Blackburn before he died, leaving a clear Republican majority on joint ballot. Then Senator Stege, that admirable Teuton from Louisville, declared that he would pair with Wilson's successor until a certain date in February, affording time for a special election, and Godfrey Hunter's backers said they would carry Nelson County if it took a fortune.

The Democrats of Nelson looked around for their strongest man, and the choice fell on young Beckham. Ill though he was, he accepted the nomination, made a mid-winter campaign, and came off victorious with-in forty-eight hours of the time when Stege's "pair" was up. He hurried to secure his commission and start for Frankfort; but a railroad wreck ahead made connections impossible and all through the cold winter night preceding the day when the legislature should resume balloting for senator, that sickly boy rode in a buggy from Bardonia to the Capital and saved the day.

His enemies might have remembered this incident, and realized that Beckham, no matter how killed off nor intimidated by fear.
He was elected to the succeeding legislature without opposition, and the record he had already made in the house won him the honor of the speakership. During that session as presiding officer of the house he ably seconded the progressive policies of William Goebel, and helped pass the McCord bill, which was voted by Gov. Bradley, but which Mr. Beckham had the pleasure of signing as Governor later on.

It was because of his progressive ideas and marked ability as presiding officer and leader that he was chosen for second place on the Democratic ticket in the memorable Goebel campaign. How, when an assassin's bullet laid low the chief, he was suddenly called upon to assume the executive chair in a commonwealth rent almost with civil war, and the still more disturbed aftermath of intra-party factionalism, is yet fresh in every mind. It was a task that called for anguish powers of self-control, magnanimity and sagacity; but so well did Beckham discharge his duties that he elected to fill out the term and again for a full term. That of itself was a signal achievement; but Gov. Beckham did more than merely hold on.

He carried out the policies of Goebel and displayed initiative as well as grasp of affairs. The McCord bill, giving the railroad commission summary powers to fix rates; the school book law, the extension of the school term from five to six months, are among the accomplishments of his term.

In managing the finances of the state he brought prudence and foresight into play. Payment of debts was never suspended during his term; and the end of every fiscal year showed a balance. Yet he recovered a million and a half in war claims of long standing from the government, retired a million dollars of bonded indebtedness and built the magnificent new Capital at Frankfort, paying every cent due on it up to the time he retired from office. This is a great record for an administration thrust upon a young man, scarcely old enough to qualify for office and in the midst of unparalleled discord.

But he aspired to the Senate. A congressional cabal stirred up the factional strife, with the origin of which he had no part; slanderous accusations were made, and the state ticket was defeated; yet the episode was clarifying. The resentment of disappointed factions spent itself in the campaign; four years of Republican rule but emphasized the virtues of the Beckham administration and failed to expose one flaw in it.

He stands before the people today vindicated by his enemies, maturer, stronger, better equipped than ever.

But what of the platform convention of 1911? Why, the whiskey trust had defeated Beckham for the Senate in 1908. The Democratic voters in a popular primary had selected him for the honor and the responsibility, and their choice was betrayed by the treachery of four of their own representatives in the General Assembly at the behest of the whiskey trust; because Beckham's administration had been made notable by the enactment of a local option law under which a hundred of the 119 counties had gone dry, and because he had dared recall the legislature in special session in 1908 to enact the rectifiers' license, which the trust had smothered in the regular session, and because he had closed the Louisville saloons on Sunday.

Does any one think that Mr. Beckham could not, by capitulating to the liquor interests, have won back those traitors and been elected? He was strong enough to refuse office at the price of principle. That was all, except that because of this Beckham was the champion called upon to meet the Goliath in 1911, and it is why the people in 1914 intend themselves to right the wrong done them in 1908, and with the ballots in their own hands elect J. C. W.
Beckham to the United States Senate.

IN TEA-ROOM ASSEMBLAGES

Smart Styles Noted at These Gatherings of Fashionable Women on Winter Afternoons

MOIRE AND VELVET GOWNS

New York, December—24th. The Christmas shopping was at its height, and as the hour between four and five arrived the shoppers, tired and exhausted from long hours spent in rushing from store to store, drifted into the different tea-rooms for refreshments before going home for dinner. I, of course, followed along after them, keeping my eyes open for something new in something out of the ordinary—and finally found myself in an uptown tea-room, where only the most fashionable were to be seen. As I nibbled my crackers and sipped my orange pekoe I watched the way through. One young woman, bustling in, wearing a yellowish-brown coat, with a collar of yellow fox and trimmed at the bottom of the skirt with a band of the same fur. The most striking feature of this coat was the sleeves. They were of three-quarter length, and had fur cuffs almost as long as the sleeves themselves, so that when the hands were joined the wearer appeared to carry a long and narrow muff. When the coat was removed, I saw that she wore an afternoon dress of saffron daisyette corresponding to the color of the coat. The skirt was one of those pretty draped affairs, not so very different from many others in the room, but the coat was formed from a long scarf of the same material, about ten inches wide. It was draped over a blouse straight across the chest, under the arms and over the shoulders, meeting in the front, and was caught securely about the waist from the tasseled ends, and the sleeves were of the same length. This seemed a general style of sleeve for most of the women there, and long sleeves were also in the sides; it was overlapped by the wide front panel of the skirt. The vest of the waist was of the velvet, with moire-covered buttons. The broad collar, which rolled back from the vest and over the shoulders, was of silk to match the velvet. On her head she wore a cunning little round hat, having fur around the brim and a bunch of wired ostrich tips at the side.

FOREST NOTES

There are 708 bighorns or mountain sheep in the national forests of Nevada.

In 26 states there are state foresters who cooperate with private timberland owners in solving forest problems.

The forest service maintains nine experimental stations for studies in reforestation and similar subjects.

The bureau of entomology and the forest service, working together for the control of forest insects, last year covered more than 100,000 acres in their operations.

A national arboretum is being established in Rock Creek national park, District of Columbia. Eventually it will contain all American tree species which will thrive there.

The total amount of land purchased in the eastern states for federal forests is nearly 800,000 acres. So far the principal work on these areas has involved their protection against forest fires.

Dewey Sees No Signs of Impending War

Washington, December 27.—George Dewey, admiral of the navy and hero of Manila Bay, who yesterday celebrated his 76th birthday, has given to the world a message of peace.

"I see no signs of war in the future," said the admiral. "I trust there will be no more wars. I do feel, however, that this Nation should not be off its guard. My views of peace and the future of the navy are expressed in the few words of General Keifer, former representative from Ohio. He said: 'In time of peace prepare to maintain it.'"

If you buy a dollar bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP you get the two remedies you need for the price of one. There is a HERRICK'S RED PEPPER PLEURAL PLASTER for the chest free with each bottle. #### LIFE'S STRUGGLE WITH ILLNESS

Mrs. Stewart Tells How She Suffered from 16 to 45 years old—How Finally Cured.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham Remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing since I was 62 years old. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADRIAN STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

A Friend To The Working Man

Five years ago I was so troubled with kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder that I had to leave working my farm. Life looked dark to me until I heard of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root through a cured friend. I tried a bottle and began to feel better at once. After using five or six bottles I felt fine and have continued to work as I had before my affliction.

I want to state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a kidney medicine that will cure and I owe my good work during the past five or six years to it.

Yours very truly,
C. W. MORRIS,
Prescott, Ark.

Girl Fells Hold-up Man

After holding up a street car in Pittsburg, Michael Riley, age 30, hailing from Seattle, Wash., met his Nemesis in the 16-year-old daughter of Michael Reagan, a Pittsburg saloon keeper, whose place of business Riley attempted to "steak up" in approved western style. Rushing into the saloon, Riley commanded the proprietor and seven customers to throw up their hands, emphasizing his order with a number of shots.

The young woman hearing the shooting, procured her father's revolver and, dashing into the barroom, poked the weapon under Riley's nose before he could recover from his surprise. His hands flew up in the air as the cold steel pressed his cheek. Miss Reagan ordered her father to call a policeman and Riley was taken to jail.

How to Bankrupt The Doctors

A prominent New York physician says: "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effective and is pleasant and safe to take. #### Why Snow is Warm

Snow is warm by virtue of its light and woolly texture. But it is also warm on account of its whiteness. Had snow been black it would have absorbed the heat of the sun and melted quickly. Instead, it reflects heat and the reflected heat falls upon bodies above the snow, while warmth of the earth is preserved beneath it.

The Railroad President and The Efficiency Expert

When James J. Hill was in New York, a week ago, he attended a dinner at a private house, at which there were a number of men prominent in business affairs, and the railroad rate matter was discussed in an informal way. Mr. Hill is said to have related an interesting experience with a certain lawyer who professes great depth of knowledge regarding railroad affairs, and who, for a considerable time past, has been posing as an authority on economic operation. The latter began to tell Mr. Hill what economies could be instituted in shop methods and be proceeded to build up a locomotive, telling the cost of the different parts, the best means by which they could be put together, and the saving effected by this method, compared with the usual practice on the railroads. Mr. Hill, so the story runs, made a note of all the figures, and found, when he had them all assembled, that the cost, as figured by the great expert on efficiency, would be about 80% higher than that at which, in actual practice, the same kind of locomotive could be turned out at the Burlington shops. Wall Street Journal.

Croup and Cough Remedy

Croup is a terrible disease. It attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved this certain remedy, Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for coughs, croup and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co. Phila. St. Louis.

How To Take Good Care Of Your Hair

Nothing spoils your good looks so much as homely hair—stringy, dull-colored, harsh. Nothing adds to good looks so much as beautiful hair—soft, silky, wavy and glossy. No matter how beautiful your hair is now, you can improve its good looks by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. If your hair is homely and ugly now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will make it softer, silkier, glossier, more beautiful in every way. It also makes it easier to put up and helps it to "stay put." Its rich rose odor hides the unpleasant, oily smell of the hair. Harmony Hair Beautifier is rightly named; it beautifies the hair.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—St. Bernard Mining Company, (Incorporated) Drug Department.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by All Dealers.

Big Shrine Class For January 17th

The next ceremonial of Rizpah Temple Shrine, as now planned, will be held Saturday, January 17th, at which time a large class will be given the necessary instructions and incidentals which will enable them in the future to wear the fez and enjoy the tortures inflicted on the unsuspecting at these meetings.

A large number of petitions are now in and more are being received almost every day by Recorder Wilson, and it is now planned for this session to be held on the above date. There are perhaps something like 100 applicants now on file and the January class promises to be about the largest ever taken in.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.—Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Remedy.

DRY PHILOSOPHY

You may have noticed that the kind of women who have to break windows to attract attention are in no danger of breaking any hearts.

Only a coward asks a girl if he can kiss her. He is putting all the responsibility up to her.

Look out for the fellow who is always bragging about his honesty.
